

G.E. Massenez

Born into a family of distillers, G.E. Massenez, with his exceptional savoir-faire, successfully continued the traditional art of distilling eaux-de-vie (fruit brandies), still particularly alive in the Villé region of Alsace, France. These are extraordinary products which are enjoyed all over the world. Uncompromising on quality, G.E. Massenez is today universally acclaimed for his eaux de vie (fruit brandies) such as wild Raspberry and Williams Pear as well as his crèmes liqueurs : Peach, Blackcurrant etc... G.E. Massenez has won many awards at international exhibitions.

Crème de Fraise des Bois (Wild Strawberry Cream)

Massenez's wild Strawberry Cream is one of those Creams where the fragile fruit contrasts with the intensity of its characteristic aromas. Beautiful harmony in a Cream chosen for its quality worldwide.

Color:

- Intense red color. Very fluid, transparent texture with pink highlights.

Nose:

- Very intense fruity nose with some floral notes allowing the merest hint of acidity to appear.
- A beautiful balanced nose foretelling harmony in the mouth.

Palate:

- Surprising fresh, dynamic attack.
- Clearly evolving towards riper, candied fruit, reminiscent of sweet jam notes.
- Very pleasant, persistent fruity finish.

"A luscious concentration of raspberry fruit using only the freshest fruit available. Try some over ice-cream or create a delicious champagne kir!"
- drinkswap.com

 Dreyfus, Ashby & Co.
PURVEYORS OF FINE WINES & SPIRITS SINCE 1946

