

THE DROUHIN FAMILY OF WINES

2021 ECHEZEAX GRAND CRU

These vines belong to Véronique's mother, who purchased them in 1961 —also the year she married. It is vinous, generous and poised with silky tannins, vibrant acidity and gentle minerality. It's so well put together, that it seems to glow in its precision and harmony. Red cherries, pomegranates and strawberries linger on the finish.
