

QUATTUOR - BLANC DE QUATRE BLANC

25% Arbanne, 25% Petit Meslier, 25% Blanc Vrai, 25% Chardonnay

The Quattuor is the incarnation of originality and know-how which the Drappier family has honed since 1808. Produced from an assemblage of white grape varieties of Champagne, this Blanc de Blancs allies the identity of its roots with the impertinence of modern winemaking.

A little chamber music, luminous for four instruments. A rare moment.

- Michel Drappier

The Drappier vineyard covers 100 hectares and constitutes the House's essential trump card. Since 1808 our family has used its skill to select parcels of land which are particularly well exposed and extremely rich in limestone. For the most part they are located around Urville, where Pinot Noir, the predominant grape variety, finds its loveliest expression and allows the production of very elegant, aromatic wines.

JEB DUNNUCK-92 POINTS

Boasts a bright yellow hue and is savory on the nose, leading with rich aromas of lemon oils, golden apples, licorice, and flinty crushed stones. Medium to full-bodied, it's compact on the palate, with a focused feel, a peppery mousse, and a clean, salty finish. It's a very interesting blend of these lesser-known grapes and has a lot to offer over the coming 10 years. It would be really fun to try pairing this with winter chicories and dishes with roasted fennel and root vegetables.

WINE ENTHUSIAST-92 POINTS

An intriguing Champagne. A rich style, with a ripe spice aroma and baked apple flavors

WINE SPECTATOR-91 POINTS

Well-balanced, this sleek, integrated Champagne is lightly creamy in texture, with a firm spine of acidity animating flavors of golden apple, white cherry, candied ginger and slivered almond set over a chalky undertow. Drink now.
