BÉLAIR-MONANGE

SAINT-ÉMILION GRAND CRU

2017

The the "second wine" of Belair Monange —has a medium to deep garnet-purple color and compelling notions of Morello cherries, black raspberries and baked plums, with hints of pencil lead, bay leaves, damp soil and spice cake. The full-bodied palate delivers seriously impressive freshness with a fine-grained texture and bags of juicy red and black fruits, finishing long and spicy.
