LÉOUBE A CHÂTEAU IN PROVENCE

This is the philosophy of the owners of Domaine de Léoube, one of the most beautiful protected sites in Europe and home to Château Léoube: "We believe in strengthening the land's biodiversity and natural defenses by employing traditional growing methods and using only natural, non-toxic treatments."

Set on 560 hectares, Léoube includes 70 hectares of vineyards and 25 hectares of olive groves, all devoted to growing the grapes and olives that make Léoube's award winning wines and olive oils.

ROMAIN OTT

Romain Ott, the magic word in the world of wine and winemaking. Son of a winegrower and born of a family of winegrowers for four generations, he handles all the productions of Château Léoube. "Producing the best of what the earth can give with love and gratitude..." is Romain Ott's philosophy, a "Philosophy of the Essence of Wine", with the utmost respect for the product and traditions, in the subtle search for the healthiest and most balanced grapes possible, for the greatest quality and consistency.

WINE ENTHUSIAST 90 POINTS

This rosé has aromas of ripe strawberry and the ocean—lots of seashell and wet stone notes. There is good texture and salinity on the palate with great citrus flavors.

THE DRINKS BUSINESS GOLD

Château Léoube fashions beautiful rosé wines from organically-grown grapes. Pale baby-pink in hue, the wine has raspberry, strawberry and pomegranate fruit, with light rose petal and creamy lees overlay. Nearly dry, the light-bodied palate flavours are framed by racy acidity. Delicate, but showing good concentration and length, the wine would be a nice match for prawns in a creamy sauce with spring onions and white mushrooms, gently spiced with black, white and cayenne pepper.
