JAMES SUCKLING
96 POINTS

The aromas of hot stones and lemon with honeysuckle, jasmine and salty undertones. Medium body with a beautiful pear and apple character and hints of mango. From biodynamically grown grapes. Drink now.

WINE SPECTATOR
93 POINTS

Offers a gorgeous mix of freshness and ripeness in perfect harmony as cooling mineral precision drives notes of pear, melon and aloe. Salted buttercream and macadamia sit nicely in the backdrop, with mineral precision and textural purity in the foreground. The smoky, flinty finish stretches out. Grenache Blanc, Roussanne, Clairette, Bourboulenc and Picpoul. Drink now through 2030.—K.B.

JEB DUNNUCK
93 POINTS

Offers clean stone fruits, mint, honeyed white flowers, and a touch of spice on the nose. Aged 10 months in a mix of stainless steel, barrels, and foudre, it's medium-bodied and balanced, with clean, integrated acidity and a great finish. I'd be thrilled with a case in the cellar, and it should have an easy decade of longevity. Drink 2026-2036.
